

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH

PRESENTS

Education Planning Night

An opportunity to learn about the challenges that families face when saving for education, the pros and cons of various payment strategies, how to best position yourself for Financial Aid and how to reduce your tuition costs by having a coordinated tax deduction strategy.

WHEN AND WHERE

Thursday, February 28th from 7:00 PM – 8:30 PM in the Parish Activity Center

OUR SPEAKERS

JACQUI HANSON
CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™

FINANCIAL PLANNER
PRUDENTIAL ADVISORS

Jacqui has over 20 years working in the financial services industry.

Over that time, she has helped many parents navigate the challenges of paying for private school and college. She draws on her unique knowledge of the education planning strategies available and, as a mother of 3, her own life experience to make sure that parents are setting themselves up to successfully fund their children's education.

CHRISTOPHER MCALLISTER
CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™

FINANCIAL PLANNER
PRUDENTIAL ADVISORS

Chris has over 4 years working in the financial services industry.

As a lifelong Catholic school student, he uniquely understands the challenges that families face and the sacrifice that parents make to give their children a quality faith-based education. For this reason, he has dedicated himself to give back and help these families get the most out of their education dollars.